

City of Craiova is an administrative center of Dolj County, republic of Rumania and according to the census of the population in 2005 it has 304 thousand inhabitants.

The archeological findings show that on the territory of today Graiova there were ancient settlements of Geto- Dacians , dated to 400-350 BC.

The industry is well developed in the city.

The friendly relations between municipality of Mizia and municipality of Craiova date from the beginning of 2007 , when a memorandum of cooperation was signed and project "Cross-border network for preservation of the green wealth in the Danube riverside municipalities of Mizia and Craiova", funded by the EU PHARE Programme launched

Mayor of municipality of Craiova is Antonio Solomon.